

Back and Forth

Jessie Growden

8m 4s

2015

A video about commuting. Two hours of each day filled with clouds, weather, and constantly changing skies. From a desire to capture the beauty in the everyday views that go between home and work, in a place connected to the outside world through the radio and the end result of arriving.

Please note that although there is no sound on the video, the soundtrack is live talk radio, preferably BBC Radio 4.

Jessie Growden started making films in 2014 and is a founding member of the Moving Image Makers Collective. Her videos explore place, landscape and personal experiences through a playful approach to recording images. Her work focusses on the detail, the sentimental and the throwaway, and the history and lives of objects and places.
