6m 15s

A diary of an experience of the Scout camp, Blair Atholl International Jamborette;
Using reflective moments to explore the parts of an event that aren't usually seen.

Jessie Growden started making films in 2014 and is a founding member of the Moving Image Makers Collective. Her videos explore place, landscape and personal experiences through a playful approach to recording images. Her work focusses on the detail, the sentimental and the throwaway, and the history and lives of objects and places.
